

CONFERENCE

SUSANNE K. LANGER CIRCLE

Vienna, May 26-29, 2026

SUSANNE K. LANGER: Artistic Angles, Philosophical Circles, Poetic Dots, and Technical Lines

The Susanne K. Langer Circle, hosted at Utrecht University (NL) in collaboration with the Research Unit Architecture Theory and Philosophy of Technics ATTP, TU Wien and the Institute Vienna Circle, University of Vienna.

This conference seeks interdisciplinary perspectives on the thought of logician and philosopher of the arts Susanne K. Langer (1895-1985), which spanned the domains of language, mathematics, the arts, life, and mind through logical analysis and synthesis, embodied cognition and symbolic projection.

The symbolic paradigm central to Langer's philosophy is gaining increased attention, and the international network of the Susanne K. Langer Circle continues to foster fresh perspectives on her work, while promoting its ongoing relevance and scholarly continuation. Our third, bi-annual conference in 2026 will take place at TU Wien and the University of Vienna, with a local focus on architectural humanities as well as Vienna's historical relevance for analytic philosophy.

We invite scholars from the humanities, the arts, and sciences to contribute papers on topics spanning philosophy, technology, architecture, artistic and speculative research, theoretical or technological approaches. As a cross-disciplinary conference, we welcome contributions from fields, including but not limited to:
